

SITUATION AT ANACONDA.

The Smelters Have Resumed and There is Plenty of Concentrates and Dry Ores.

The Fires Believed to Be Out and the Mines to Be Opened Saturday.

A Prediction as to What the Recovery of Two of the Bodies Will Reveal.

The Anaconda company has again resumed operations, a supply of coal having been received, and work will continue as long as the railroad company supplies coal. There is sufficient concentrate on hand at the up per works to last forty days, and enough ore can be extracted from the Chambers syndicate mines to keep the furnaces going for an indefinite period. The working force at these mines has been increased. The reports that dogs have been sent down into the Anaconda and St. Lawrence mines is not true, but Superintendent Carroll has four dogs which he will let down one at a time, and if they come back alive after being there one day the mines will be opened on Friday or Saturday next, and the first man to descend the shaft will be Michael Carroll, the efficient superintendent, who would not permit a man to go where he would not go himself. There is no truth in the statement that the Union Pacific is in collusion with the lake producers to interfere with the Anaconda company in its work of turning out copper. This is the exact state of affairs with the company and it is predicted by some that when the four bodies are taken out of the Anaconda mine, there will be two whose remains will not be identified and the question will be, who are they? A coroner could not be secured yesterday at the meeting of the directors of the Iron Mountain mining company, but orders were given for the purchase of a new boiler, two Barleigh drills and a pump. Water was struck in the winze of tunnel No. 4. If possible regular ore shipments will be made during the winter as it is believed the river will freeze hard enough to bear the weight of sleighs. The Iron Mountain is now looked upon as a great mine, and it surely has an unbeaten record. Work continues on the O. R. & N. and a small but rich streak of ore is being opened up.

W. G. Gooding buys and sells all the leading mining stock on the market. Gold block, ground floor.

W. G. Gooding's Mining Stock Exchange is evidently destined to become the center of trade in Montana mining stocks for Helena.

State Teacher's Association.

The first annual convention of the Montana state teachers' association will be held at Dillon December 25 to 28 inclusive. Mrs. M. S. Cummins of this city is the president of the association. Arrangements have been made at Dillon for the free entertainment of all teachers in attendance, and it is expected that teachers from all parts of the state will be there. The railroad companies have been requested to give lower rates to those desiring to attend. A notice of the reduction, if granted, will be given later. The program will be ready for distribution by Dec. 8. Further information of the convention may be secured from Miss M. E. Hawk, chairman of the executive committee, Dillon. It is hoped that all the teachers of Montana will be present to make the first teachers' convention a great success.

DEATH OF MRS. WELCH.

An Estimable Lady Passes Away, Leaving a Large Family.

One of the saddest deaths that has occurred in Helena was that of Mrs. Mary Alice Welch, who passed away at 11 o'clock Sunday night after a period of intense suffering, due to a lump or tumor in the throat, which has been growing for over three years and finally caused suffocation. She leaves six children, ranging from 2 to 11 years of age, and on Saturday morning gave birth to a daughter. For several weeks she had been unable to lie down. Sunday morning her condition was dangerous and the filling in the throat was such that the best medical aid could not relieve her suffocating agony. Kind friends remained with her constantly during her last hours, several sisters of charity rendered every assistance and the Catholic priest administered the last sacraments. The announcement of her death caused a shock among a large circle of friends, and expressions of deep sympathy were tendered her devoted husband, Daniel J. Welch, who is nearly distracted over the loss of his beloved wife and mother of his six young children. Her death is indeed a sad one, and has spread a gloom over the household which has been a happy one for eighteen years.

Mrs. Welch was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Brown, of Deer Lodge. She was born in Circé, Ark., Oct. 13, 1853, and arrived in Montana with her parents when but 9 years of age, in 1870 she went to Tennessee for a year and in 1871 she returned to Montana, and on Oct. 1 of that year she was married to Daniel J. Welch. She was a woman of many amiable and endearing qualities and noted for her many deeds of charity. She was a noble woman, devoted wife and fond mother. She was known and admired throughout the territory, having resided in Deer Lodge, Missoula, Butte and Helena. The remains will be taken to Deer Lodge for interment on the 74th st. train and will be accompanied by friends of the family.

For useful and ornamental presents for all at extremely low prices, call at the J. Steinmetz Jewelry Company's.

PERSONAL.

Frank E. Corbett, city attorney of Butte, is at the Broadway.

Dr. J. J. Buckley, Northern Pacific physician, arrived from Missoula yesterday.

Mrs. S. Harvey, of Anaconda, and Mrs. F. E. Stone, of Butte, are guests of the Merchants.

H. E. Boss, of the Crow agency, and A. W. Raymond, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are at the Merchants.

H. M. Cornack, who left Helena recently to take a position in P. P. Shelby's office, has returned.

Jas. M. Largent, of Cascade, J. R. Paradise, of Boulder, R. L. Perkins, of Stevensville, and E. A. Crane, of Newark, N. J., are at the Merchants.

Among the late arrivals at the Hotel Broadway are F. S. Nichols, Philadelphia, Lee Mantle, Butte, C. Berg, St. Paul, and F. S. Earl, New York.

Paul Schmitz, formerly proprietor of the Montana Free Press, is now in Salt Lake City running the Utah Free Press at 26 west 2nd South street.

Thomas M. Park and James Hall, of Bozeman, E. H. Moore, of Granite, John M. Shopp, Missoula, and Frank Duffey, of Jay Gould, are at the Commodore.

C. O. Ziegler, formerly editor of the Butte Miner, is now Washington correspondent of the San Francisco Examiner. He is now on his way to Washington to attend the present session of congress.

The families of H. M. Jarvis and R. P. Conklin arrived in Helena Sunday from Kingman, Kan., on Northern Pacific train No. 1. The party, including servants, numbered fifteen, and they have gone to housekeeping.

Babcock, the latter, has returned from Spokane Falls, where he spent several days looking around with a view to opening another branch store. He intends to open there next spring with a stock of hats, furnishing goods and furs.

City Ticket Agent Miner, of the Northern Pacific, was a unusually bland smile yesterday. He had just sold eight through tickets to New York and on to Liverpool, also one to Louis Dislet, passenger for Hartford, Conn., and three to Switzerland.

T. W. Murphy, the attorney of Cascade, has gone to Spokane Falls to assist Thomas C. Griffiths in defending Mrs. Skeels, who murdered her husband, Charles W. Skeels, in that city last spring, the sensational circumstances of the case being still fresh in the public mind. The trial will commence some time next week.

F. D. Merrill, formerly proprietor of the Triangle drug store near the depot, has returned from Livingston where he met his fate in the person of Miss Nellie McInerney, to whom he was married last Wednesday. The bride has been one of the belles of Livingston and is a winsome young lady who will gladden Mr. Merrill's new home on Billings street, where they have gone to housekeeping.

Max Behrens was pleased to run across Miss Bessie Cleveland yesterday, who was a near neighbor of his in Chicago and whom he had not seen in several years. Miss Cleveland, who is leading lady in the "Spider and Fly" company, is accompanied by her mother during her engagement, and both are guests of the Grand Central. She was formerly with the McCall Opera company, and proved the star of the occasion last evening.

H. Clay Everson,

Optician of Chicago, will be at the Merchant's hotel this week for testing the eyes with the Prizmiometer, and fitting glasses by the dioptric system.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

No change is made for skating at the Broadway pond.

The plunge bath at the Broadway hotel will be closed from Tuesday morning to Wednesday noon.

Cash Patent No. 2,152, issued to Fred T. Colver of Fergus county was received at the land office yesterday.

The annual election of the board of trade was not well attended last evening, and further action was postponed until Saturday.

On Thursday evening, Dec. 19, the young people of the Congregational church will give an entertainment in behalf of the parsonage fund.

Joseph Hilger, Nic Hilger, Paul Adams, John Cook, Minnie Range, of Helena, and Thos. J. Smith and Geo. Holling of Badersburg, are among the latest students who joined the English Helena Business College yesterday.

Louis DeLestry received news Sunday of the death of his twin sister, her husband and infant daughter, who lost their lives in the British channel off Brighton Beach by the capsizing of pleasure yacht. There were nine people in the party and only two were saved. Mr. DeLestry was greatly shocked by the news.

It didn't cost you anything to drop in and inspect the elegant Holiday goods at the J. Steinmetz Jewelry Company's. Always a hearty welcome.

The Bee Hive is opening an entirely new line of novelties for the Holidays, and purchasers will do well to call and make their selections early.

THEY WERE DISCHARGED.

A Number of Vagrancy Charges that Did Not Stick.

In Judge Sanders' court yesterday there were several young men before his honor on a charge of vagrancy, a jury trial was had and the men were discharged. Only one case was tried of a young man who is a property owner in this city, but follows gambling as his occupation. During the last election he was appointed by the democrats in the second precinct of the First ward to see that the republicans did not run in any illegal votes. He was ousted once, but the county attorney decided that he had a right to be there. He claims that his arrest was the result of spite and also says that the sergeant positively refused to permit him to secure bail. He was thrown in a cell and after being in there three hours one of his friends was run in on a similar charge. The man had over $500 in his pocket and a deposit check for $500 on the First National Bank. He gave the sergeant $50 for their release, and after an expensive trial yesterday, which the city will have to bear, the men were discharged.

Registered Warrants.

All warrants of the city of Helena registered prior to April 1, 1889, will be paid on Monday, December 2, 1889, and interest thereon will cease on that date.

AMUSEMENTS.

A Great Audience to See the Spider and Fly—Coming Attractions.

The biggest audience of the season was present at Ming's opera house last evening to witness the performance of the Spider and Fly. It was a gorgeous production. The plot amounts to nothing more than a vehicle for the introduction of a variety of clever songs, graceful dances, pretty costumes and several excellent specialties. The best work of the evening was done by the pantomime clowns, the Dare Brothers. Their acts contained none of the old time chestnutty features that brought pantomime work into unpopularity. It would be difficult to imagine a more refined and amusing, gymnastic performance than their horizontal bar acts in the second act. The other features of the evening were of unusual excellence, notably the terpsichorean specialty of Mons. Oreste and Miss Doré. Their dancing possessed not only an airy grace, but it contained many original parts. It was one of the cleverest things on the program and would have been much more effective if the musicians had understood their music. The singing of Miss Hilda Thomas caught popular favor and she was recalled again and again. She has a sweet melodious voice, something that is not often found in an entertainer that appeals so largely to the eye for approval. Miss Bessie Cleveland as Progress, queen of the fairies, possesses not only beauty of form and face, but is a pleasing actress and singer. The other members of the cast were capable people. A matinee will be held this afternoon and the engagement will be finished this evening.

The Grismer-Davies Company.

To-morrow evening Mr. Joseph Grismer and Miss Phoebe Davies, with an excellent company, will open a brief season at Ming's opera house. The Tigress will be the opening attraction. Concerning this the San Francisco Music and Drama says:

"The Grismer production of 'The Tigress,' a dramatization by Ramsey Morris from his own novel, 'Crucify Her,' during the week at the Bush, has met with the success it deserved. There are many things in 'The Tigress' which bring up recollections of Mrs. Langtry's 'As in a Looking Glass,' but if a comparison of the two plays is carefully made Mr. Grismer's purchase is found to be much better of the two, it being stronger in its acting, and all of the best points are brought out at the right time and place. It is a play that will interest and please the large mass of theater-goers. Mr. Grismer and his entire company may be complimented on the way the drama is handled. They work in harmony without a noticeable hitch, and carry out their individual parts very satisfactorily. Miss Davies as the lower girl and afterwards governor, is to be commended on her good dramatic work."

McKee Rankin.

On Monday and Tuesday evenings McKee Rankin and company will appear in a new play, The Runaway Wife. It is a tale of domestic life well adapted to the dramatic talents of Mr. McKee Rankin and his charming leading lady, Miss Nellie Rest.
